The New Testament's Positive Statements about Old Testament Law

It is "spiritual" (Rom 7:14).

It is "holy, righteous, and good" (Rom 7:12).

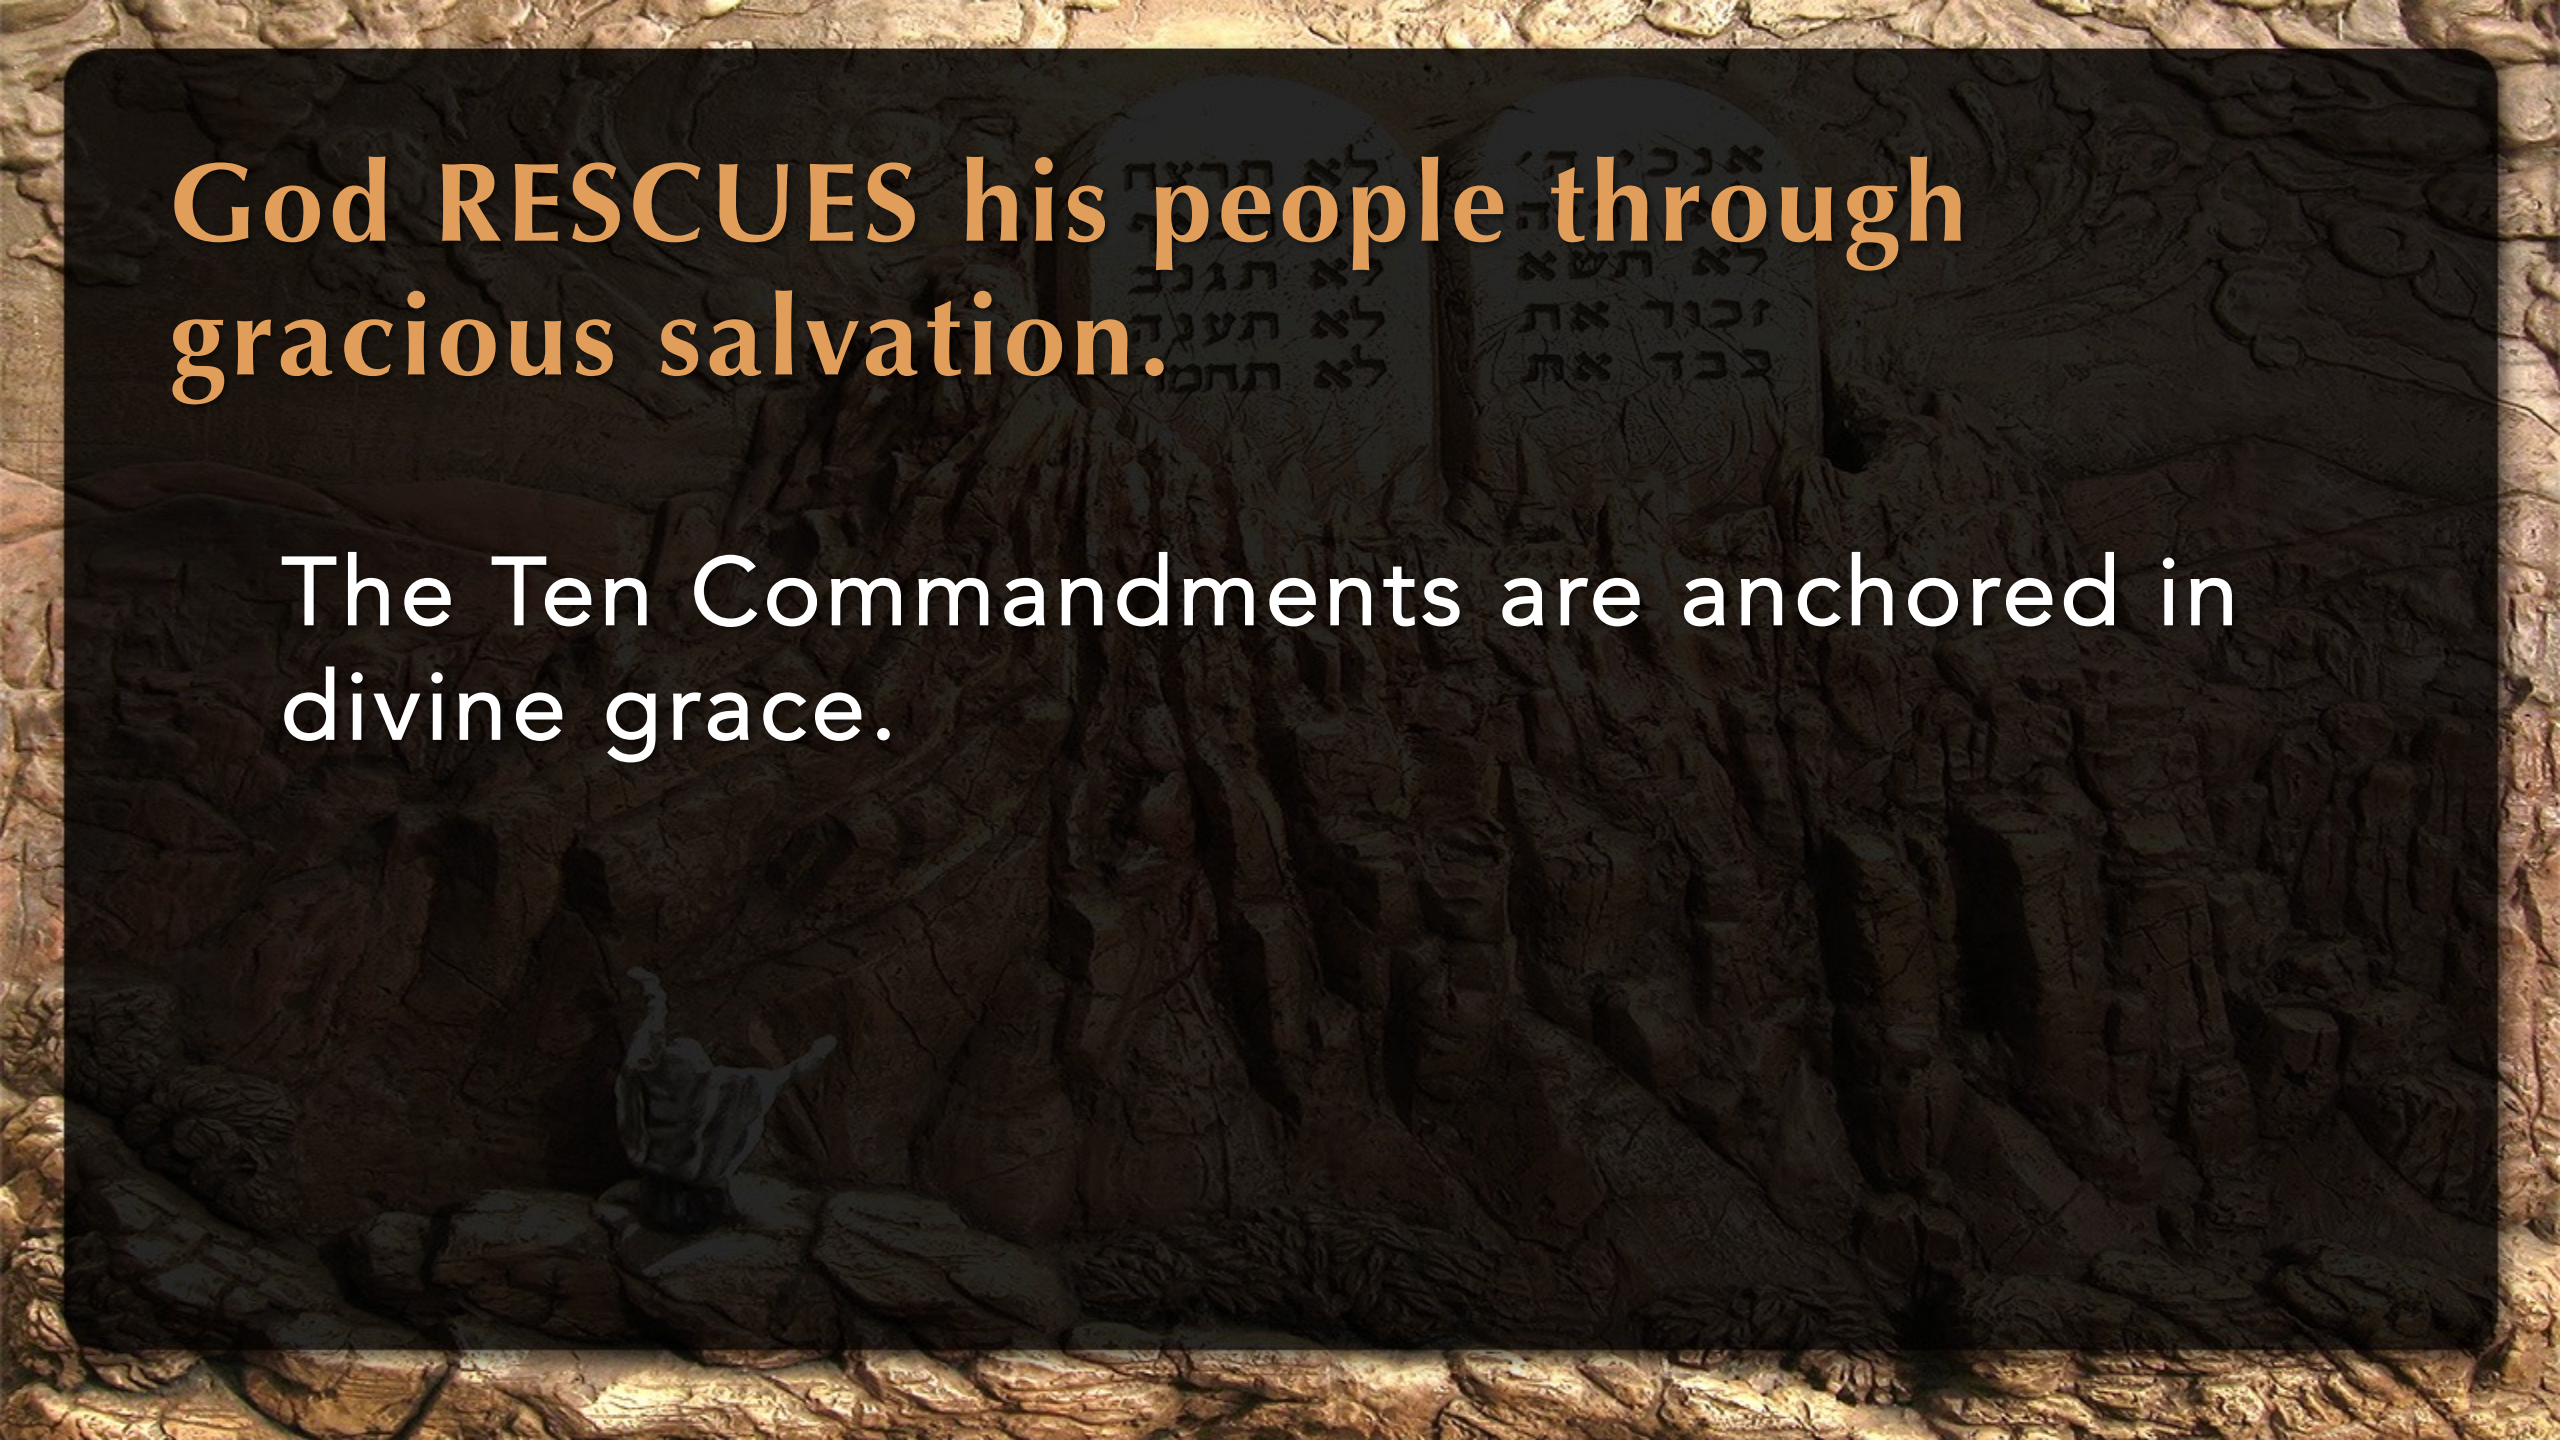

It is "written for our sake" (1 Cor 9:10).

It is true "we uphold the law" (Rom 3:31).

God RESCUES his people through gracious salvation.

אֲנִי יְהוָה
וְלֹא תֵּשֵׁא
זִכּוֹר אֶת
כֹּכַב אֶת
לֹא תִרְאֶה
לֹא תִגַּב
לֹא תִעַנֶּה
לֹא תִתְחַמַּד

The background of the slide is a dark, textured image of the Ten Commandments tablets. The tablets are arranged in two columns, with Hebrew text visible on them. The overall tone is dark and dramatic, with a rocky, mountainous background.

God RESCUES his people through
gracious salvation.

The Ten Commandments are anchored in divine grace.

לא תרצח
לא תנאף
לא תגנב
לא תענה
לא תחמד

אנכי ה'
לא יהיה
לא תשא
זכור את
כבוד את

God rescues his people before he regulates them.

God RESCUES his people through
gracious salvation.

The Ten Commandments are anchored in divine grace.

The Ten Commandments are announced in divine glory.

God REALIGNS his people through gracious instruction.

The background of the slide is a dark, textured image of the Ten Commandments tablets resting on a rocky surface. The tablets are arranged in two rows, with Hebrew text visible on them. The overall tone is dark and dramatic, with a focus on the divine law.

God REALIGNS his people through
gracious instruction.

God's laws reflect his character.

God REALIGNS his people through
gracious instruction.

God's laws reflect his character.

God's character never changes.

God REALIGNS his people through
gracious instruction.

God's laws reflect his character.

God's character never changes.

God's nature and ways are always relevant.

God RESTORES his people ultimately through Jesus Christ.

God RESTORES his people ultimately
through Jesus Christ.

Moses stood between God and the people
as a flawed man—a prophet but not a Savior.

Jesus stands between God and the people
as a flawless man—a prophet and a Savior.

לא תרצח
לא תנאף
לא תגנב
לא תענה
